Committee Provides Other Attractive Events for Hunters and High-Jumpers.

PHYSICIAN IN AN ACCIDENT

Dr. Hoy Thrown from Buggy Into Ditch—Now Satisfied With Tart.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., September 12.—The Horse Show Committee at a meeting at the Petersburg Club last night added two classes to the big exhibition to be held under the auspices of the Riverside Club September 27th-29th. Of the additional classes one is for hunters and the other for high jumpers. In the first the horses will be required to go a half mile at a hunting pace, taking a four-foot stone wall, a worm fence, a post-and-rail fence, a plank fence and two wide ditches, the fences to be four feet high. The riders will appear in full hunting colors, and the class is expected to be one of the most attractive features of the show. In the class for high jumpers the horses will start at 4 1/2 feet, going as far up as they can. The winner will probably clear about six feet. Preparations and prospects for the horse show give every promise of great success. All boxes have been sold, and many requests are being received for reserved seats, which will be placed on sale in a few days.

Dr. Hoy Injured.
Dr. William Preston Hoy, a prominent Petersburg physician, was thrown from his buggy and considerably bruised, but not seriously injured, yesterday afternoon near Ettrick, in Chesterfield county, while returning from a visit to a patient. The horse was frightened by a road-roller, and suddenly jumped to one side, turning the buggy over and throwing Dr. Hoy into a ditch. The animal then tried to run, but failed to get the best of the doctor.

In the Mayor's Court this morning Sandy Harper, a colored boy, was sent on to the grand jury for a larceny of a rather unique type. The boy had in Finn's restaurant, at Old and Short Market Streets, last night, and after the closing of the place stole $10 and broke out.

Snatched With Tart.
The supporters of Eli Tart, the pastor of Harrison Street Baptist Church, where a violent dissension has long been existing between the friends and opponents of the pastor, have published a card, signed by Pleasant Webb, chairman, and Aaron Coleman, secretary, expressing their regret that the meeting with Tart as a pastor, and stating that he has never encouraged them to be antagonistic to the white people of this city. The publication denies all charges against Tart, who was recently sustained by a majority of his congregation at a big meeting at the church.

Dr. J. M. Burke, accompanied by Mrs. Burke, Miss Edith Burke and Mrs. Bertha Grace, is attending the meeting of the Seaboard Air Line surgeons at the Jamestown Exposition.

Madison, of this city, and was in the fifty-ninth year of her age. She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Messrs. Wilkes Madison, Randolph Madison, Louis Madison and Miss Elizabeth R.
